Centenary Celebration of His Holiness Dr. Shri Shivarathri Rajendra Mahaswamiji has been organized at JSS College, B N Road, Mysuru on 13.08.2016. The programme was started with the invocation song by Poornima, a student of final B.Com. The Chief Executive of the College, Prof. B V Sambashivaiah welcomed the guests. The College Principal, Prof. M Mahadevappa, elaborated on the growth and development of the college from its inception.

The function was inaugurated by Prof. B G Mulimani, Special Advisor, BLDE Organisation, Vijayapura. In his inaugurai address, he spoke about the importance of quality and value based education. He quoted many Indian philosophers, educationists like Tagore, Nehru and scientists like Einstein. He appreciated JSS College for upholding the humanistic concept and scientific concept in imparting education.

Sri S Rudre Gowda, Ex KPSC Member, Shivamogga, opined that even though India is spiritually, culturally and philosophically rich, but our country is lagging behind in the field of science and technology. He highlighted the need of improvement in these fields. Dr.Go Ru. Channabasappa, awardee of Basavasri and President of All India Sharana Sahitya Parishath, in his speech in his own way defined J in JSS as Jewel, S- Sincerity and S for Seniority. He appreciated the administrators and employees of the college for their selfless service to the society and emphasised the need of value based education in India.
