REPORT ON THE SPECIAL LECTURE PROGRAMME
HELD ON 10.12.2019

Women Writing in India with Reference to
*The God of Small Things

Postgraduate Department of English has organized a Special Lecture on 10 December 2019. Dr Sujatha C E, Associate Professor of English, PG Centre Hassan, University of Mysore, Mysuru, delivered a Special/ Invited Lecture on the topic Women Writing in India with Reference to *The God of Small Things.

Dr Sujatha C E spoke on the significance of The God of Small Things as a postmodernist novel in English. The speaker analyzed Arundhati Roy's contribution in Indian Writing in English focusing on the paradigm shift happening in women's writing because of feminist movement gaining significance in contemporary India. Quoting from the novel, Dr Sujatha enthused students' attention on Roy's language in the novel which has beautiful description of landscape of Kerala. The speaker dwelt on the various feminist perspectives in Roy's novel and the transcending trends in contemporary women writing in India. The lecture was well received by the students and faculty.

The students of II Semester and IV Semester of PG English, and faculty of PG Department of English participated in this Special Lecture Programme. The Head of the Department, Dr. Syed Hajira Begum, chaired the programme.
