"Fruits of the research should reach the poorest man of the country"
Prof. K.S. Rangappa

Prof. Rangappa said that drug discovery is not a simple process which needs huge time and money along with the man power. He stressed upon the contribution of Chemists and Biologists to the field of Medicinal Chemistry and explained how natural molecules play a vital role in the drug discovery. He opined that Chemical Biology is a right platform which is considered as an interface between Chemistry and Biology. He also spoke about the processes involved in the drug discovery right from designing the molecules up to the clinical trials. Finally he said that discovery of therapeutic agents for the treatment of diseases is the need of the hour and the researchers across the globe should pay heed on it.

Prof. Rangappa, Former Vice Chancellor of University of Mysore and KSOU, Mysuru spoke after inaugurating the "Two Day International e-Conference on Drug Discovery and Material Science" organized by UG and PG Departments of Chemistry of JSS College of Arts, Commerce and Science, Ooty Road, Mysuru-25 on 15 September 2021.

Presiding over the inaugural programme, Prof. B.V. Sambashivaiah, Chief Executive of the College said that timely availability of the drugs is very much needed. He told that for a molecule to come into the market as a drug requires tens of years with lot of work from hundreds of scientists. Prof. Sambashivaiah also said that his address that there are more ways of getting a drug which ranges from traditionally discovered drugs to synthetically obtained ones. He also recalled the efforts of one of most prominent scientists of India, Prof. C.N.R. Rao who has immensely contributed to the field of Material Science.

The two day international conference on 15 and 16 September 2021 will witness four Technical Sessions by eminent scientists from USA, UAE, South Africa and India. There will be five Invited Lectures, 40 oral and 45 e-poster presentations. Students, research scholars, faculty, scientists numbering about 400 from different parts of the world are participating in this e-programme.

Dr.H.C. Honnappa, Principal of the college welcomed, Dr L. Mallesha, Head, Department of Chemistry spoke about the conference, Smt. J.S. Vidya, Head, Department of Chemistry proposed vote of thanks and Miss. Sushmitha M.S. presented invocation. Mr. Neeraj Nanaiah, was the moderator of the inaugural session.
