INTRODUCTION: ABOUT COMPETITIVE EXAMINATIONS

Examinations are conducted to evaluate a person of his knowledge or ability. There are different types of examinations like qualifying or competitive exams. Qualifying exams are conducted to evaluate certain kind of knowledge or skills; they are decided as per the course. After completing a particular course or during the course these exams are conducted. Here the number of students is limited. Competitive exams are conducted either to qualify a candidate for a particular course or to give entry into the institution.

Competitive exams are also conducted for selecting a person for a job. Clearing a Competitive exam will help a person to enter into his Dream College or institution or to pursue his dream job. This section will help students to get some vital information about those exams. Some of the major institutions of government conduct these examinations. To clear these exams dedicated efforts along with certain soft skills are required. One should have clear knowledge of one's goals, and he should know how to use time effectively for getting success in competitive exams.

UNION PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

The first Public Service Commission was set up on 1st Oct 1926 for the recruitment into its territory. After independence the need was felt to set up an independent organization for the Recruitment into the Government services.

On 26th Jan 1950 the federal Public Service Commission was given a constitutional status as an autonomous entity and given the title –Union Public Service Commission. This has been established under the article 315 of the constitution of India. Its main duties are recruitment to services and posts under the Union and the Central government through conduct of competitive examinations and interviews.

CIVIL SERVICES EXAMINATION

Under the constitution one of the functions of the Commission is to conduct examinations for appointment to Civil Services/Posts of the Union. It conducts their examinations spread over 42 regular centers throughout the country. The Civil Services examination is a single and combined examination for recruitment to Indian Administrative Services (IAS), Indian Police Service (IPS), Indian Foreign Service (IFS) and the other higher Central Services (i.e. group A and group B).

OBJECTIVES OF JSSCACs CET CELL

The objectives of a competitive examination training cell are to prepare candidates for various competitive exams and enhance their chances of success. Some of the key objectives of our training cell are:

- Comprehensive Exam Preparation: The primary objective is to provide candidates with comprehensive preparation for a wide range of competitive exams. This includes national-level exams like UPSC, SSC, banking exams, state-level civil services exams, and various other competitive tests.
- Syllabus Coverage: The training cell aims to give the bird view of the syllabus of the respective exams, ensuring that candidates are aware of current updated syllabus.
- Expert Guidance: To offer guidance and mentoring by experienced educators and subject matter experts who understand the intricacies of the competitive exams and can provide valuable insights to the candidates.
- Practice and Mock Tests: Conducting regular practice sessions and mock tests to familiarize candidates with the exam pattern, time management, and boost their confidence. Mock tests help candidates evaluate their performance and identify areas that need improvement.
- Personalized Study Plans: Tailoring study plans based on individual strengths and weaknesses of candidates. This personalized approach helps candidates focus on areas that require more attention.
- Study Material and Resources: Providing candidates with high-quality study materials, reference books, online resources, and access to libraries to facilitate their exam preparation.
- Current Affairs Updates: Keeping candidates updated with the latest current affairs and general knowledge, which is crucial for competitive exams.
- Problem-Solving and Shortcuts: Teaching effective problem-solving techniques, time-saving shortcuts, and strategies to tackle difficult questions, which can significantly improve performance in competitive exams.
- Confidence Building: Boosting candidates' self-confidence through regular interaction, motivation, and positive reinforcement.
- Performance Evaluation and Feedback: Regularly assessing candidates' progress through tests and evaluations, providing constructive feedback, and assisting them in identifying areas of improvement.

- Interview Preparation: For exams that involve interviews or personality tests, conducting mock interviews, and providing guidance to help candidates present themselves effectively.
- Stress Management: Assisting candidates in managing exam-related stress and anxiety, promoting a healthy and positive mindset during the preparation phase.
- All-round Development: Focusing not only on exam-specific subjects but also on developing candidates' overall personality, communication skills, and critical thinking abilities.
- Building a Supportive Community: Creating a supportive learning environment where candidates can interact, share knowledge, and motivate each other.

The overall aim is to empower candidates with the knowledge, skills, and confidence necessary to excel in competitive exams and pursue their desired careers successfully.

JSSCACS CET CELL

College has established a JSS Competitive Examination Training Cell wherein interested students are enrolled and regular guidance classes and workshops are conducted to enhance their basic language skill, general aptitude, general knowledge and subject skills like basic mathematics, history, geography, which are required in a broader context to appear for exams like UPSC, KPSC, SSC, Railways, Banking and other Civil Service examination.

UPSC- CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION AND SYLLABI

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA AS AN EMPLOYER

The Government of India is the biggest and the most important employer in the country. Barring a few lower categories of jobs, the other middle and high-level positions under the Central Government are filled by recruitment through an independent agency called the Union Public Service Commission (UPSC). The Constitution of India advises the Commission to select qualified people to fill these positions. This part deals with the recruitment done by the Commission annually through the Civil Service Examinations.

According to the current plan, the Civil Service Examination consists of two successive levels.

- Civil Service Examination Preliminary (Objective type) for the selection of candidates for the Main Examination

- Civil Service Main Examination (descriptive type and Interview) for the selection of candidates for various services and posts.

Applications are first invited for the Preliminary Examination only. Candidates who are declared by the Commission to have qualified for admission to the main Examination will have to apply again in the detailed application form which will be supplied to them.

The object of the interview is to assess the personal suitability of the candidate for a career in public service by a board of competent and unbiased observers. The test intended to judge the mental caliber of a candidate. In broad terms, this is really an assessment of not only his intellectual qualities but also social traits and his interest in current affairs.

Some of the qualities to be judged are mental alertness, critical powers of assimilation, clear and logical exposition, balance of judgment, variety and depth of interest and moral integrity. The technique of the interview is not that of a strict cross-examination but of a natural, direct and purposive conversation which is intended to reveal the mental qualities of the candidate. The interview is not intended to be a test either of the specialized or general Knowledge of the candidates which has been already tested through their written papers. Candidates are expected to have taken an intelligent interest not only in their special subjects of academic study but also in the events which are happening around them both within and outside their own state or country as well as in modern currents of thought and in new discoveries which should rouse the curiosity of well-educated youth.

Marks thus obtained by the candidates in the Main Examination (written part as well as P.T.) will determine their final ranking. Candidates will be allotted to the various services keeping in view their ranks in the Civil Services Competitive Examinations and the preferences expressed by them for various Services and Posts.

For paper II: The applicants have to concentrate on general studies and mental ability questions

HOW TO SCORE 125+ IN PRELIMS?

- The cut-off for UPSC Prelims is usually around 110-120 marks for General Category in GS 1. With proper preparation and practice tests, it is quite possible to clear the Prelims in the very first attempt itself. Integrate Current Affairs preparation and revision into your daily plan. Try to minimize the sources as too much information will simply cause more confusion.
- Read the NCERT books as they will give the basic concepts. Other than NCERT books, the essential books for Prelims are Indian Polity by Laxmikanth, Indian Economy by Ramesh Singh.
- Practice reducing incorrect answers as there is negative marking in UPSC Prelims. Either, the candidates attempt very few questions as they are afraid of negative marking or they carelessly attempt questions without knowing the answers. Give Prelims Test series or join IAS coaching if you feel you need it. The basic idea is to revise, make mistakes, revise better and finally make fewer mistakes in the actual Prelims exam
- Along with books mentioned in booklist, get a printout of the syllabus and read it carefully.

- And when you start, it is recommended that you begin with NCERT books. Read and revise them methodically to gain absolute conceptual clarity. They form the foundation of your knowledge which will help you immensely through all stages of the exam.
- Do not be scared at the long list of books. For a beginner, one year is more than enough to cover the complete syllabus of GS (prelims and mains) and optional.
- In the book list, wherever it is mentioned selective reading, it means there's no need to read the book cover to cover. Go through the past five years' question papers to understand the kind of questions UPSC usually asks. It'll give you a good perspective of what's important and what's not.
- For the same topic, do not refer to more than one material. For example, take India's freedom struggle (1857-1947). If you read that portion from the Spectrum publications, there's no need to do the same again from Bipan Chandra's book. Read the latter to cover those parts not covered in the former.
- Use internet extensively. Eg: YouTube's PMFIAS channel is an excellent resource for understanding complex Geography topics. Similarly, for Art & Culture, watch videos of classical dances, folk dances, puppetry shows on YouTube so that you could memorize their features better. In Science & Tech, if you come across a term, say, Block chain Technology, go to YouTube and see explainer videos. Even for Environment, suppose you read about endangered species such as the Red Panda and Malabar Hornbill, Google them and see how they look. Visuals stick in your mind far longer. Your target must be to gain knowledge, be it through books or through internet.
- If you are taking coaching, by all means read their notes. But please keep in mind that you cannot just read those coaching notes and neglect these standard books. For example, take Polity topic. A coaching institute's notes will never cover the complete subject, only Laxmikanth does. So even if you refer to your coaching notes, you still have to read Laxmikanth and know it like the back of your hand. This principle applies for all subjects.
- For all subjects, you have to superimpose current affairs over it. To illustrate, in Polity topic, apart from reading the static theory portion, you need to keep an eye on current happenings. For example, if the Government brings in Constitutional amendment for GST, you must read both about the major provisions of the amendment and the Constitutional amendment procedure itself. Do this for all subjects.

- To perform well in Prelims, revision is crucial. Without it, you will not be able to recollect whatever you may have read. So please dedicate adequate time for revision before the actual exam.
- To succeed in this exam, the source of material is not important. It is important to understand the concepts, memorize the facts well and have a firm grip over the entire syllabus.

UPSC CIVIL SERVICE MAINS - PREPARATION STRATEGY FOR ESSAY PAPER

The UPSC Mains Exam has a total of 9 papers which includes an essay paper as well. The Essay Paper in the IAS Mains Exam consists of two sections A and B with four topics each of 125 marks and a total of 250 (125×2) marks. Candidates have to select a topic from each section and write about it in 1,000 to 2,000 words within the given time of three hours. The Essay paper is considered as crucial in determining the final result of selection and ranking of a candidate. The Essay Paper is considered as crucial as it is a compulsory paper and its marks are incorporated in computing the total and moreover what makes it crucial is that there is no in-depth study in an essay unlike optional subjects where any aspirant can claim expertise. Let us take a look at the conventional way of writing an essay that includes introduction, body and conclusion. Though this is fundamental but the concept of an essay when it comes in terms of UPSC Paper it is quite tricky. An essay should be of topical text that is easy to understand or follow and comprehensive, succinct, composite and definite, as well as informative and logical. So, here are a few tips on how to structure an Essay Paper in the UPSC Mains Exam. For the effective composition of an essay one should generally follow the below points that are ideally suggested by the senior UPSC Aspirants and toppers:

WHAT TO WRITE IN THE ESSAY?

Read the topic carefully

Think and recollect the points to be included in the topic for 30 minutes

WHAT NOT TO WRITE IN THE ESSAY?

Provoking Essay

Do not get personal

Quotes

Deviating from the subject

TIPS TO ENHANCE YOUR ESSAY WRITING

Recommended Reading

Reading Books as Hobby

STEP-1: CHOOSE THE TOPIC WITH GREAT CARE

Before choosing the topic, read all the topics more than once and choose the topic wisely from the given choices so that you will find enough points to write about the topic. Once you choose a topic and start to write you may find difficult and tend to change the topic in between which would be foolishness and it will be too late to change the topic as you would have already utilized much time. Read the topic twice and think about the topic for 30 minutes.

STEP-2: THINK ABOUT THE TOPIC FOR 30-MINUTE

Once you have chosen the topic to write don't start to write immediately instead 'think about the topic for 30 minutes'. Because when one starts writing without thinking about the topic they may miss out on many important points and in between or at the end they may remember more significant points which would be too late as there would be no enough pace left in the answer sheet or time to write more. Hence, it is recommended to utilize the first 30 minutes to think about the topic before starting to write as you have three hours to write the essay.

Think about the topic for 30 minutes

Write down the random points that come to your mind at the end of the sheet

Arrange the points that you have jotted down in sequence

SOME IMPORTANT TIPS TO MAKE YOUR ESSAY WORTHY

Important Basic points to Start with Your Essay writing

- Recall all the points and write it down in the end of a sheet
- Think of any quotes that you can relate to
- Correlate to the current events
- About people/personalities

Important Points to Include in Essay

- Historical/Past events
- Examples where you can relate it to like in law or administrative
- Discuss about the positive and negative sides and its obstacles
- Conclude with your own suggestions for changes or the measures taken by the Gov.

STEP-3: STRUCTURE YOUR ESSAY

Once you have recalled, collected and noted the points then the next step is to structure it as given below:

- Introduction
- Background/past example
- Main concept/theory
- Correlate with current event
- Advantages and disadvantages
- Suggested Changes
- Conclusion

STEP-4: DON'T BE PROVOCATIVE IN YOUR WRITING

It is advised while writing an essay on a topic that may be provocative not to get personal and criticize a person or government in your writing. Some topics would be provocative where you may tend to lose control of your writing and write something in an offensive way, which is not appreciable and recommended as well. If you are writing about the disadvantages it is suggested to come up with a few reforms that may change the disadvantages into advantages.

STEP-5: REMEMBER THE QUOTES CORRECTLY

Always memorize the quotes correctly and the name of the person who has quoted them. If you are not sure about the quote then it is advised to leave it instead of writing it incorrectly.

STEP-6: DON'T DEVIATE FROM THE TOPIC

For effective essay writing one should clearly be sure of the purpose of writing the essay and should remember the “Five Wives and One Husband” concept i.e., – Who?, Why?, What?, When?, Where?, and How?, that is taught in the school on the first day of Essay Writing. Following this concept will make you stick around the topic and not paddle away from the topic.

STEP-7: RECOMMENDED READING

Essay writing also needs continuous reading; hence it is suggested to candidates read diverse topics and books some of the recommended are:

- Editorial section of The Hindu Newspaper
- Magazines like Frontline, Kurukshetra, Yojana
- Watch discussions and debates on television
- Work on previous question papers essay topic

Finally, when it comes to Essay as one of the papers in the UPSC Exam, it is all about understanding and assessing the personality of a candidate through which his/her views, ideas, suggestions, values, attitude, aptitude, coordination, and communication (written) abilities and other attributes are analyzed that especially UPSC looks for in an aspirant.

ALL INDIAN SERVICES MAINS & PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION TRAINING

Two papers of Preliminary Examination which consist of objective type multiple choice questions. Certain basic skills required to understand, analyze and select the best answers to different types of questions are taught. Emphasis is on exercises and acquisition skills to crack questions of logical, numerical and analytical types quickly. General knowledge component is also extensively covered along with current affairs.

Along with this enough emphasis will be give on language papers and five compulsory papers, essay paper, four general knowledge papers and two papers in one of the optional subjects. At present, Training Programme imparts training in six optional subjects. These are Geography, Public Administration, History, Sociology, Economics, and Kannada Literature.

TRAINING FOR KARNATAKA CIVIL SERVICE

The next part of the training is exclusively for candidates appearing for the Karnataka Civil Service Examinations. Since syllabus for these examinations are nearly identical to All India Service Examination, teaching pattern, duration, and content of training are also the same as for the All India Services.

The general papers thought during the training period will be very much useful in giving very good shot to various competitive examinations conducted by both UPSC and KPSC such as Staff Selection commission, Indian Economics Services, CDS, Army Navy Air force Group A, B&C Banking Exams, RRB, Group A B and C Technical and Non Technical examinations, FDA, SDA, KSRTC, Police Services Examination Etc.

Today's students are at crossroads of 'Age of Choices': Dr. C.G. Betsurmath

Mysuru, Dec. 27- "Today we live in a world of difficult choices and to choose the best in the 'Age of Choices' is a highly competitive task and the students are at the crossroads of selections," opined Dr. C.G. Betsurmath, Executive Secretary, JSS Mahavidyapeetha (JSSMVP).

Addressing the students recently after inaugurating 'Deeksharambh 2021-22' and JSS-CACS Competitive Examination Training Cell at JSS College of Arts, Commerce & Science, Ooty Road, he said that today we live in a world of difficult choices, and to choose the best in the 'Age of Choice' is a highly competitive task for the parents too.

He also expressed his concern towards the problem faced by parents in selecting a good educational institution for their wards in today's technological world that has changed the very concept of education. Students must develop social and emotional skills apart from gaining worldly knowledge, he said.

Focusing on the importance of the competitive training cell, Dr. Betsurmath said that the main objective is to help students to get ready for the competitive exams and to face the challenging life in socialising, associating, governing, rationalising and to build an enhanced personality.

Prof. K.C. Veerabhadraiah, Joint Director, Department of Collegiate Education, who presided, created awareness among the students about the National Education Policy (NEP-2020) and the changes that can be expected in the new system.

He said that NEP-2020 provides ample opportunity to enhance the creative skills in the students. At the same time he called upon the students to be aware of the uses and abuses of technology that prompts the student fraternity more towards misusing the technology.

Prof. B.V. Sambashivaiah, Chief Executive of the College, provided detailed information about the facilities available in the College and advised the students to make the best use of it.

Dr. H.C. Honnappa, Principal, welcomed. Dr. M. Poornima, HoD of English, proposed a vote of thanks. Sushmitha and Dumbishree of I BVoc rendered the invocation. Dr. Kumudini Achchi, Department of Social Work (PG), compered.

Bags Gold in wrestling

Mysuru, Dec. 27- H.A. Akhilesh, an MCA student at the city's Visvesvaraya Technological University (VTU) Post-Graduate Centre, has bagged a Gold medal at the State-level VTU Inter-collegiate wrestling contest held at Haliyal in Uttara Kannada district recently.
