Annual Report of PG Student Cultural Club for the Academic Year – 2019-20

Date	Programme
26-10-2019	PG Cultural and Sports forum inauguration

The dynamism of academic life spills out of the classrooms. It is a credit to the mental and intellectual focus of the students that many of the clubs are extensions of their academic and career aspirations. There are several annual fests and cultural events organized by the institution every year.

Students clubs provide a forum for interaction among themselves and the outside world events, however varied, it may be formal or informal, but brings out the passion in youngsters and develop their organizational skills. The clubs bring about a good balance of work, fun and leisure activities and ensure the all-round development of students.

The club is open to all students, these clubs organize programs, events, and meetings throughout the academic year. These events include Mehendi design, Rangoli art, Solo dance, Group dance, Debate, Essay writing, Quiz Competition, Fashion show, Solo acting, Different categories of singing like Bhavageete, Folk song etc. With 150 students involved, it's likely that the events catered to a diverse range of interests and talents among the student population.

The fresher's party which will be thrown by each department, promotes inclusivity by encouraging new members to interact with existing members, fostering friendships, and building a sense of belonging. It creates a welcoming atmosphere where everyone feels valued and accepted.

Farewell party serves as a occasion to acknowledge and appreciate the contributions, efforts, and achievements of the individuals who are leaving. This could be students graduating, employees retiring, or individuals moving to new opportunities.

All the events of the cultural functions were anchored by students. The Forum inauguration invoked by Tanuja N(I MSc) and Shrinidhi H.M(II M.Com) introduced the guest, vote of thanks given by Sindhu KU(I MSc), compeered by Sowjanya KU(II M.Com). Due to Kodagu landslide valedictory function not conducted.

Students' Clubs are the main hub of student activity. They provide an outlet and a stage for the creative juices of young minds and hearts. The clubs give you the chance to apply classroom learning in the outside world. This helps you to gain invaluable leadership as well as life skills. In addition to connecting other students who have similar interests, students' clubs make students to interact with alumni and professionals in their fields of interest.

Annual Report of Red Ribbon Club for the Academic Year – 2019-20

The Red Ribbon Club holds a significant place in our campus community as it stands dedicated to raising awareness about HIV/AIDS and promoting a healthy lifestyle among our students. The Red Ribbon Club, an initiative that serves as a beacon of hope and education in the fight against HIV/AIDS. It symbolizes solidarity with those affected by the disease and underscores our commitment to fostering a supportive environment where knowledge and compassion prevail.

As a part of the event an Essay competition held at the Red Ribbon Club event aimed to foster awareness and critical thinking among students regarding HIV/AIDS-related issues and promote their active participation in spreading awareness. The competition saw enthusiastic participation from students across various departments and academic levels. The competition fostered meaningful discussions among participants, encouraging them to delve deeper into the complexities of HIV/AIDS and its impact on society.

Students eagerly attended the essay competition and participated in discussions led by healthcare professionals and guest speakers.

Winners were selected based on the judges' evaluations, with prizes awarded to acknowledge their outstanding contributions to the competition. Recognition was also given to participants who exhibited exceptional creativity, originality, and dedication in addressing the essay prompt.

The essay competition held at the Red Ribbon Club event not only showcased the intellectual prowess of our students but also reinforced our commitment to raising awareness about HIV/AIDS in our campus community. Through insightful essays and meaningful discussions, participants contributed significantly to the ongoing dialogue surrounding HIV/AIDS prevention and advocacy.

Annual Report of Student Cultural Club (UG) for the Academic Year 2019-20

Date	Programme
04-04-2019	UG Valedictory programme
21-09-2019	UG Cultural and Sports forum inauguration

Student club is responsible to organise and promote all intra and inter collegiate cultural events in the college to bring out the hidden talents of the students. The cultural programme gives an opportunity to students to present their talents in different fields like music, dance, literary, fine arts etc

The aim of this event was to gather all the students and faculties for celebrating and spread happiness and joy among each one of them by certain activities and to cheer the students for their performances.

Under the extra-curricular activities the college encourages students to showcase their talents through different cultural programmes. Usually soon after the commencement of the academic year competitions is conducted to identify cultural talents among the students. The cultural activities play a large role in building the mindset and attitude of the students. While performing specific art forms from other states and regions the students learn to respect the large cultural diversity that India has and the programs showcase the harmonious relations amongst students.

Usually soon after the commencement of the academic year competitions is conducted to identify cultural talents among the students.

Student involvement in cultural events is an essential component of holistic education, providing significant opportunities for personal development, cultural awareness, and community engagement. These events allow students to develop skills in teamwork, communication, creativity, and leadership. Over thousand students participated in various cultural activities such as Quiz, Essay Writing, Mehendi, Rangoli, Debate, Singing Competitions, Solo Dance, and Fashion Show.

Induction programme, Farewell day and College day these individuals and teams are given the stage to exhibit their talents and win the audience.

The farewell event was a poignant occasion for students, faculty, and staff to gather and celebrate the achievements of the graduating class. It offered a moment for reflection, nostalgia, and anticipation as students prepared for the next phase of their lives. The valedictory programme has hosted by UG Students. The forum inauguration program was invoked by Sannidi KN (II BSc), Lakshmi (III BSc) welcomed the guests and Ayusha samrin gave vote of thanks.

Students actively engage in celebrating cultural diversity and integration during Indian national festivals. These celebrations are vital in enriching the college experience and fostering a sense of unity among students from various backgrounds.

Competitions offer opportunities to connect with like-minded individuals, exchange ideas, and form lasting friendships. Cultural events highlight the importance of cultural exchange, fostering understanding, and celebrating diversity. They demonstrate the power of art and tradition in bringing people together and promoting mutual respect. These events also emphasize the significance of preserving cultural heritage while embracing modern expressions, thus enriching the collective human experience.
