PRESS REPORT

India is the Strongest Democratic Country in the World

Prof. H.M.Rajashekar

Prof. H.M.Rajashekar, Retired Professor of Political Science, University of Mysore addressing the gathering on the occasion of 77th Independence day, on 15th August 2023 at JSS College of Arts, Commerce and Science, Ooty Road, Mysuru said that India is not only the largest Democratic country but also the Strongest democratic country in the world. He felt that the great leaders of the Indian Sub Continent and its Constitution had built strong democratic foundations and the Constitution thus making India a great country. The democratic constitutional foundations have strengthened India to achieve equality in all its socio-political and economic aspects. He also added that Teachers are the transformers where they impart ethical values to the students playing various roles such as transformer, educator, creator, harmoniser, elucidator and researcher which has helped the student community to get inculcated the Nation, nationalism and Patriotism spirit in the young minds. He also threw light on the journey of the Independence which filled with a lot of struggle and sacrifice. He opined that on this auspicious occasion our thinking process needs to be changed as everything has digitalized and India is emerging into super power overcoming all its hurdles to reach the global position.

Prof B V Sambashivaiah, Chief Executive of the college hoisted the national flag and presided over the programme. Dr. S Prathibha Principal of degree college welcomed the gathering, Prof. S Somashekar Principal P U College proposed vote of thanks. Dr.Vinay Kumar, NCC officer of the college and convener National festivals committee compered the programme. Kum.M.C Rekhashree of III B Sc rendered invocation.
